State of Michigan
Attorney Grievance Commission
Annual Report
January 1, 2009 – December 31, 2009

Overview

The Attorney Grievance Commission was established by the Michigan Supreme Court on October 1, 1978, succeeding the former State Bar Grievance Board. The Commission acts as the prosecution arm of the Supreme Court for the discharge of its constitutional responsibility to supervise and discipline Michigan attorneys. The Commission exercises state-wide jurisdiction and is located in Detroit.

Commission Composition

The Commission consists of nine members, all appointed by the Supreme Court, who serve on a voluntary basis. There are six attorneys and three laypeople. Effective October 1, 2009, Kent J. Vana, Esq. and Martha D. Moore, Esq. were the Chairperson and Vice Chairperson of the Commission, respectively. Other members included Jan A. Brandon, Esq. (Secretary), Michael Murray, Esq., Karen M. Dunne Woodside, Esq., Pastor Deborah Butler, David L. Porteous, Esq., Mary M. Fowlie, Esq., and Rozanne Sedler.

The Grievance Administrator's Staff

The Grievance Administrator and Deputy Administrator are appointed by the Supreme Court pursuant to MCR 9.111. The Grievance Administrator is empowered by MCR 9.111 to hire legal and support staff. Grievance Administrator Robert L. Agacinski and Deputy Administrator Robert E. Edick have thirteen attorneys under their supervision and a complement of seventeen support staff. Additionally, the Commission accepts law students for the legal intern program in connection with their law school.

The legal staff at the Commission is well-experienced in disciplinary matters. Counting the Grievance Administrator and Deputy Administrator, eight of the fifteen attorneys have been on staff at least ten years, and thirteen of the fifteen attorneys have been on staff at least five years. The staff attorneys also bring a wide variety of experience to their work on disciplinary matters. The Grievance Administrator similarly enjoys an experienced support staff providing a wide range of administrative, secretarial, technical, and investigative assistance.

Commission Procedure

The attorney discipline process is governed by Subchapter 9.100 of the Michigan Court Rules. The disciplinary process is normally initiated when a Request for Investigation is filed with the Administrator against an attorney, or when the Administrator commences an investigation in his/her name.

Upon the filing of a Request for Investigation, the Grievance Administrator must determine whether there exists a prima facie allegation of professional misconduct. The Request for Investigation may be rejected by the Grievance Administrator on its face or after preliminary investigation and/or analysis by the Intake Unit, or it may be assigned to a staff counsel for a full investigation. Common investigative procedures include legal research and analysis, witness interviews, and/or procurement of court records or banking records. When the investigation is concluded, the Grievance Administrator submits the investigative file to the Commission for their review and disposition.

On each investigative file, the Grievance Administrator, through his/her staff attorneys, recommends to the Commission that: (1) the matter be closed as there is insufficient evidence of professional misconduct to sustain the burden of proof at a disciplinary proceeding; (2) the respondent attorney be placed on contractual probation pursuant to MCR 9.114 and MCR 9115; (3) the respondent attorney be admonished, with his or her acceptance and consent; or (4) authority be granted to file a formal complaint against the respondent attorney for allegations of professional misconduct.

Investigations

During 2009, the Commission docketed 2,861 Requests for Investigation, or grievances. Table 1 below details the number of grievances docketed for the years 1999-2009, with a breakdown of the disposition of files by the Commission for the same time frame. The dispositions include grievances dismissed by the Grievance Administrator pursuant to MCR 9.112(C)(1)(a) and MCR 9.114(A)(1); grievances closed by the Commission; admonitions issued by the Commission; contractual probations approved by the Commission; and individual grievances approved by the Commission for the filing of a formal complaint.

Table 1 – Disposition of grievances, 2000-2009

Year	grievances received	grievances disposed	rejected by the GA or closed in Intake	closed by the AGC	admonishments	contractual probation	grievances approved for formal complaint
2009	2,861	2,556	1,939	313	137	38	129
2008	2,907	2,802	2,141	347	102	45	167
2007	3,293	2,905	2,219	355	128	52	151
2006	3,575	3,280	2,654	275	118	30	203
2005	3,541	3,265	2,667	461	129	36	172
2004	3,475	3,315	2,382	533	178	15	207
2003	3,583	3,629	2,696	540	143	9	241
2002	3,557	3,551	2,477	739	132	3	200
2001	3,575	3,294	1,569	1,166	125	n/a	171
2000	3,373	3,195	1,132	1,333	185	n/a	227

The dispositions of grievances for a particular year are not necessarily dispositions of the grievances filed for that year. The dispositions for 2009 may include grievances from previous years, and some of the 2009 grievances will be pending on January 1, 2010.

The number of individual grievances approved by the Commission for the filing of a formal complaint will not correlate directly to the number of new formal complaints filed with the Attorney Discipline Board. Multiple grievances against a single Respondent, all of which have been approved for prosecution, may be, and often are, consolidated in a single complaint for purposes of efficiency and judicial economy.

Table 2 reflects that the areas of practice most likely to lead to a grievance are criminal law, domestic relations, probate, and personal injury law.

Table 2 – Subject matter most prevalent in grievances, 2009

subject matter	% of total grievances
criminal law	38
domestic relations	14
probate law	8
bankruptcy law	6
commercial litigation	5
personal injury law	5
real estate transactions	4
employment/labor law	3

Prosecutions and other litigation

When the Commission authorizes that a prosecution be commenced, a formal complaint is filed with the Attorney Discipline Board (ADB) setting forth the alleged misconduct, pursuant to MCR 9.115. The matter is scheduled before a hearing panel of the ADB. Upon the conclusion of the hearing, the Grievance Administrator, the respondent, and the Complainant all possess the right to appeal to the ADB. Further appeals may be taken by leave to the Supreme Court.

The Grievance Administrator alone is empowered by MCR 9.120 to initiate Judgment of Conviction (JOC) proceedings against attorneys who are convicted of a crime. These proceedings are show cause proceedings in which the level of discipline is the principal issue. Attorneys who are convicted of a felony are automatically suspended from the practice of law until a hearing panel of the ADB has issued a final order of discipline. Attorneys who are convicted of misdemeanors are not automatically suspended. The Grievance Administrator will regularly file a JOC proceeding for a felony conviction, while exercising discretion in initiating a JOC proceeding for a misdemeanor conviction.

Attorneys who are disciplined in other jurisdictions (state or federal) will be subject to a reciprocal discipline proceeding initiated by the Grievance Administrator pursuant to MCR 9.104(B). These proceedings, like JOC proceedings, resemble a show cause proceeding in which the principal issues are whether the attorney received due process in the underlying litigation and whether a reciprocal discipline should be imposed.

Michigan judges who have discipline recommended against them by the Judicial Tenure Commission (JTC) may be subject to a formal complaint under MCR 9.116. The discretion to file such a complaint rests with the Commission.

The Grievance Administrator also is a party in ADB reinstatement proceedings initiated by attorneys who have been suspended for more than 180 days. The burden of proof is on the attorney to establish his or her fitness by clear and convincing evidence. These proceedings are often contested.

The above-recited proceedings, which are similarly reported in the ADB's annual report, are only part of the full picture.

The Grievance Administrator may be involved in federal district court reinstatement proceedings. The District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan automatically suspends any lawyer who receives a suspension or revocation and who is also a member of its bar. That attorney must petition for reinstatement, regardless of the length of suspension. The court routinely appoints the Commission as an interested party to provide information and assistance.

The Grievance Commission is a party in superintending control¹ filings with the Michigan Supreme Court by complainants who take issue with the Administrator's or the Commission's decision on an investigative file. For 2009, 16 such complaints were filed with the Court. The Grievance Administrator also has a long-standing policy of accepting requests for reconsideration of files closed by the Intake Unit or the Commission. This process acts as a quality control measure while also providing further accountability to complainants. Upon the receipt of a request for reconsideration, a senior attorney will review the file and the request to determine whether an issue or a relevant fact was overlooked by the Intake Unit or the Commission, or whether new information is provided that could change the analysis or outcome of the matter. If such information is provided, then the file may be reopened for further investigation and analysis. For the year 2009, approximately 500 such requests were received.

¹ MCR 7.304(A) provides that a petition for superintending control may be filed to implement the Court's superintending control over the Board of Law Examiners, the Attorney Discipline Board, or the Attorney Grievance Commission.

Respondent-attorneys who fail to comply with their orders of discipline may be subject to a show cause proceeding filed by the Grievance Administrator in circuit court, pursuant to MCR 9.115(1)(2). Often these proceedings have been necessitated by respondent-attorneys who fail to pay the restitution and costs that were contained in the order of discipline.

Receiverships, under MCR 9.119(G), to protect clients of deceased, incapacitated, and absconded attorneys have increased over the last few years. The Grievance Administrator may file with a circuit court a petition for a receivership. When there is no potential conflict, the Grievance Administrator acts as receiver for the files of the subject attorney. A very work-intensive process follows in which the files are identified, cataloged, and prioritized between pending and closed. Letters are sent and phone calls are placed to clients advising of the receivership, and advising that the attorney is no longer available and that the file will be provided, at their request. Courts, in which matters are identified as pending, are contacted so that the attorney's non-appearance does not prejudice the client. Mail is received and forwarded to the appropriate file and client. When necessary, bank accounts are taken so that claims may be made for refunds or distributions. For 2009, the Grievance Administrator commenced 2 new receiverships, continued to process and wind down 6 pending receiverships, and provided substantial assistance and guidance in numerous matters so as to avoid the necessity of commencing a receivership.

Funding

The Attorney Grievance Commission is entirely funded by a yearly assessment paid by each Michigan lawyer with their State Bar dues. The yearly assessment is set by the Supreme Court. In the fiscal year ending September 30, 2009, the Commission's actual expenditures were $3,969,381.

Looking forward

2010 will bring the continued efficiency of the internal goals for efficient, thorough, and prompt investigations. The Grievance Administrator and members of his attorney staff continue to cooperate with the State Bar in presenting the ethics seminars to improve the knowledge and professionalism of the Bar. The Grievance Administrator will continue to speak to the Bar and civic groups to improve the communication and understanding of the attorney discipline process and will continue to participate in various State Bar Committees focusing on the good of the profession.

The Supreme Court continues to review substantial proposed changes to the Michigan Rules of Professional Conduct, as well as revisions to Sub-chapter 9.100 of the Michigan Court Rules. The Commission and the Grievance Administrator are fully participating in the ongoing discussion of those proposed changes.

With an aging lawyer population, the AGC will continue to have an increasing role as receiver of files of deceased or incapacitated attorneys, and providing guidance to others in that role.

On September 15, 2010, the recently-adopted Trust Account Overdraft Notice (TAON) rule (MPRC 1.15A) became effective and the AGC will be responsible for reviewing all overdrafts of client trust accounts and determining whether action needs to be taken.

The AGC also will continue to monitor pro hac vice requests, to determine if the out-of-jurisdiction attorney is eligible and has paid the appropriate fee.

Conclusion

The past year reflected the ongoing changes in the attorney discipline process. The mission continues to be to protect the public and improve the quality of the bar. To accomplish this, the work of the Commission, the Grievance Administrator, and the staff goes well beyond the investigation and prosecution of attorneys.

STATE OF MICHIGAN
ATTORNEY DISCIPLINE BOARD
ANNUAL REPORT

January 1, 2009 - December 31, 2009

Organization and Composition

The Attorney Discipline Board is the adjudicative arm of the Michigan Supreme Court for the discharge of the Court's exclusive constitutional responsibility to supervise and discipline Michigan attorneys. The Board, along with its prosecutorial counterpart, the Attorney Grievance Commission, is part of the bifurcated system of discipline described in Chapter 9.100 of the Michigan Court Rules.

The Attorney Discipline Board consists of six lawyers and three public members (non-lawyers) appointed by the Supreme Court. A member may not serve more than two three-year terms. All members serve without compensation.

The Board's Chairperson and Vice-Chairperson are appointed to one-year terms by the Supreme Court. The Board's Secretary is elected by its members. The Board's officers for one year terms ending September 30, 2010 are William J. Danhof of Lansing, Chairperson; Thomas G. Kienbaum of Birmingham, Vice-Chairperson; and William L. Matthews of West Bloomfield, Secretary.

Staff

Michigan Court Rule 9.110 authorizes the Attorney Discipline Board to appoint an attorney as its counsel. The Board's full-time staff consists of: John F. Van Bolt, Executive Director and General Counsel; Mark A. Armitage, Deputy Director; Sherry Mifsud, Office Administrator; Jennifer M. Petty, Legal Assistant/Webmaster; Kathy Leal-Paredes, Case Manager; Allyson M. Plourde, Case Manager; and Juliette M. Loiselle, Receptionist/Secretary.

Office and Hearing Facility

The Attorney Discipline Board is located at 211 W. Fort St., Suite 1410, Detroit, Michigan 48226 (corner of Fort St. and Washington Blvd.). The Board's facilities include hearing and conference rooms for public hearings conducted by the Board and hearing panels.

Volunteer Hearing Panelists

The Board maintains a current roster of more than 480 attorneys appointed annually to serve on three-member hearing panels. Hearing panelists are currently located in 45 of Michigan's 83 counties. The 2009 hearing panelist roster is attached as Appendix "F." The Board has continued its efforts to appoint attorneys as panel members who represent a broad range of professional experience. With the cooperation of the Woman Lawyers Association, the Wolverine Bar Association, and other special interest bar associations, the Board has actively encouraged the participation of women and minorities in Michigan's discipline system.

Hearing Panel Proceedings

Complaints submitted by clients, judges or other lawyers regarding an attorney's conduct are investigated by the Grievance Administrator and his or her staff under the supervision of the Attorney Grievance Commission, a separate agency. If formal disciplinary proceedings are authorized by the Commission, the charges of misconduct are set forth in a formal complaint filed by the Administrator.

Upon the filing of a formal complaint with the Attorney Discipline Board, the matter is assigned to a hearing panel and scheduled for hearing within 56 days. Proceedings before a panel are open to the public and are conducted under the Michigan Court Rules applicable to a civil non-jury trial in a circuit court and the Michigan Rules of Evidence. During 2009, hearing panels conducted 133 public hearings throughout the state.

Charges of misconduct must be established by a preponderance of the evidence. If misconduct is not established, the panel must enter an order of dismissal. Upon a finding of misconduct, the panel must conduct a separate phase of the hearing to determine the appropriate discipline. The levels of discipline provided in the court rules are reprimand, probation, license suspension and license revocation (disbarment).

Discipline orders must include an assessment of administrative costs together with the actual costs incurred by the Grievance Commission and Discipline Board, and may include an order of restitution to an aggrieved client. The Board collected total administrative and reimbursed costs of $112,507 from disciplined lawyers in fiscal year 2009. Orders of reprimand and suspension may include additional conditions relevant to the established misconduct, including legal education, reformation of law office practices and personal counseling.

Unless appealed to the Board within 21 days by the respondent, the Grievance Administrator or the complainant, orders of discipline entered by a hearing panel, including orders for disbarment and suspension, constitute final orders and may be enforced in civil contempt proceedings by the Grievance Administrator.

Board Review

In addition to their administrative and oversight responsibilities, the nine appointed members of the Attorney Discipline Board serve as the intermediate appellate level of Michigan's discipline system. The respondent, the Grievance Administrator or the complainant may petition the Attorney Discipline Board for review of an order entered by a hearing panel. The Board's review in such cases is based upon the record presented to the hearing panel and the written and oral arguments presented by the parties at a public hearing before the Board. Following its review, the Board may enter an order affirming, reversing or modifying the panel's order. A party or the complainant may seek further review by the Michigan Supreme Court by filing an application for leave to appeal. The Board regularly considers and disposes of various motions seeking stays of discipline, extensions of time to pay costs, consolidation or severance of pending matters and the institution of show cause proceedings for alleged violations of discipline orders.

The Board met seven times in 2009 to conduct review hearings at the Board's offices in Detroit and at the State Bar of Michigan building and Michigan Hall of Justice in Lansing. The Board conducted public review hearings in 21 cases in 2009. Following its deliberations, the Board took the following actions:

- Affirmed hearing panel order of dismissal:	1
- Affirmed hearing panel order of discipline:	7
- Increased the level of discipline:	2
- Vacated order of discipline and dismissed complaint:	1
- Vacated probation and ordered no discipline:	1
- Remanded to panel for further proceedings:	3
- Affirmed denial of reinstatement:	5
- Affirmed order granting reinstatement:	1

TOTAL: 21

New Cases Filed

There were 71 new formal complaints filed in 2009. Of these, 67 complaints¹ contained original charges of misconduct following an investigation by the Attorney Grievance Commission. (This was a 30% decrease in the number of original complaints compared to 2008.) An additional four formal complaints² were based solely upon the respondent/attorney's failure to answer the initial formal complaint, a separate violation under MCR 9.104(7). Such complaints are generally consolidated for hearing before the panel to which the original complaint has been assigned.

Twenty-two new cases were commenced under MCR 9.120 with the filing of a judgment of conviction establishing that the attorney had been convicted of a crime. Seven petitions for reinstatement in accordance with MCR 9.123(B) were filed in 2009 by attorneys suspended for 180 days or more. (Sixteen such petitions were filed in 2008.) In addition, the Grievance Administrator filed six petitions for enforcement of an earlier discipline order, two petitions seeking an attorney's transfer to inactive status, one petition seeking miscellaneous relief and two reciprocal discipline actions based upon the imposition of discipline in another jurisdiction.

The 117 new files opened by the Board in 2009 compare to 188 new cases in 2008. The following table (Table 1) illustrates the Board's annual intake of new cases since 1999.

Table 1. New Case Filed, 1999 - 2009

² Designated "FA" in Appendix "A."

Orders of Discipline/Dismissal

The Attorney Discipline Board issued 143 final disposition orders in 2009, including orders of discipline, orders of dismissal and orders granting or denying reinstatement. Public discipline (revocation, suspension, reprimand or probation) was ordered in 107 cases. A complete list of the orders of discipline issued in 2009 appears in Appendix "C." Orders of discipline issued since 1999 are illustrated in Table 2, below.

Table 2. Discipline Orders Issued, 1999 - 2009

Discipline By Consent

The respondent and the Grievance Administrator may enter into a stipulation for a consent order of discipline. This procedure, described in MCR 9.115(F)(5), allows the respondent to admit the charges in the complaint, or plead no contest, in exchange for a stated form of discipline. Written notice of the stipulation must be provided to the complainant and the stipulation must be approved by both the Attorney Grievance Commission and a hearing panel.

Fifty-one consent orders of discipline were finalized in 2009, accounting for 48% of all discipline orders finalized.

Consent orders were finalized in the following discipline categories in 2009:

Type of Discipline	Consent Orders	Total Discipline Orders	% By Consent
Revocation	4	24	17%
Suspension (3 yrs. or more)	1	7	14%
Suspension (180 days but less than 3 yrs.)	4	21	19%
Suspension (30 - 179 days)	13	20	65%
Reprimand	27	33	82%
Probation	2	2	100%

Types of Misconduct Resulting in Discipline

As in prior years, conduct characterized by a lack of diligence, lack of competence and/or neglect of client matters was the single largest category of professional misconduct, accounting for 30% of the discipline orders issued in 2009. These cases ranged from an attorney's failure to provide competent or diligent representation on behalf of a single client to, in a few cases, complete abandonment of the attorney's practice. In some cases in this category, the attorney's neglect or mishandling of client matters was accompanied by additional misconduct including misrepresentations to the client about the status of the matter; a failure to return unearned fees; and/or failure to answer request(s) for investigation.

Twenty-three Michigan lawyers were disciplined in 2009 as the result of a criminal conviction. The 12 felony convictions and 11 misdemeanor convictions accounted for 21% of the discipline orders issued in 2009. Seven lawyers were publicly disciplined in 2009 following a conviction for an alcohol related driving offense.

The next largest category of misconduct, accounting for 13% of all discipline orders in 2009, involved misuse of client funds, ranging from outright misappropriation of funds in seven cases to failure to promptly remit client funds upon demand. Other types of misconduct resulting in discipline in 2009 included failure to comply with the terms of a prior discipline order, conflicts of interest and misrepresentation to a tribunal. A complete summary of the final discipline orders in 2009, showing the nature of the misconduct and the resulting discipline, is included in this report as Appendix "B."

Reinstatements

Attorneys suspended for 179 days or less are automatically reinstated upon the filing of an affidavit of compliance with the Supreme Court. Twenty-four attorneys were automatically reinstated under this rule in 2009. In cases of revocation or suspensions of 180 days or more, the attorney must file a petition for reinstatement which is followed by an investigation by the Grievance Administrator and a hearing before a panel to determine the applicant's fitness to re-enter the practice of law. Attorneys suspended for three years or more must also undergo examination and recertification by the State Board of Law Examiners. In Michigan, a disbarred attorney may petition for reinstatement after five years.

Seven reinstatement petitions were filed with the Board and assigned to panels for hearing in 2009. The Board or its panels issued six orders reinstating attorneys whose licenses had been suspended. Nine reinstatement petitions were denied or dismissed. (Some of the fifteen reinstatement petitions decided in 2009 were filed in 2008.)

Pending Caseload

As of December 31, 2009, there were a total of 101 open discipline or reinstatement cases pending before a hearing panel, the Attorney Discipline Board or the Michigan Supreme Court.

Year-End Caseloads 2008 - 2009

	Pending 12-31-08	Pending 12-31-09
Supreme Court:	4	1
Attorney Discipline Board:	20	17
Hearing Panel:	119	111
Total:	143	101

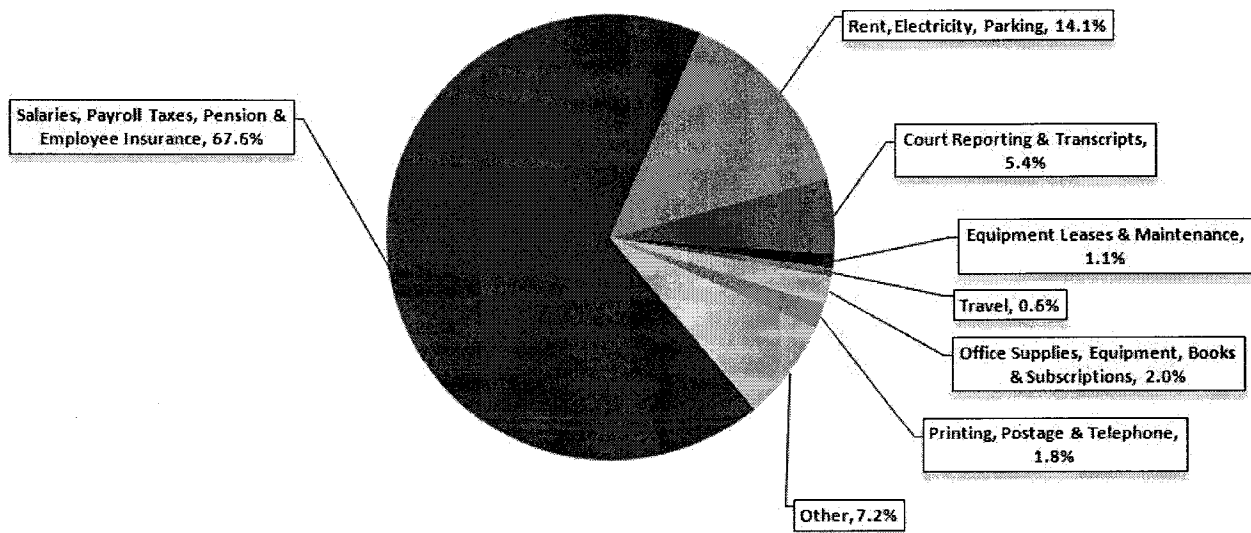

Funding and Expenses

The Attorney Discipline Board receives no public funds. Michigan's Attorney Discipline System (Attorney Discipline Board and Attorney Grievance Commission) is funded entirely from the discipline portion of the dues paid by all active members of the State Bar of Michigan. Under the current dues structure approved by the Supreme Court in 2003, annual dues are $315, of which $120 (38%) is specifically allocated to the Attorney Discipline System. For the fiscal year which ended September 30, 2009, the Attorney Discipline System had total operating expenses of $5,026,147. The Attorney Discipline Board's operating expenses in FY 2008 - 2009 were

$1,056,766. A chart summarizing the Board's expenses for 2008-2009 is included below (Table 3). A complete itemization of the Board's expenses for the fiscal year is attached to this report as Appendix "D."

The Board's expenses of $1,056,766 in FY 08-09 were $94,686 (8.2%) below the Board's authorized budget for the year of $1,151,452. Total spending in FY 08-09 was $17,439 (1.6%) below actual spending in FY 07-08.

Under MCR 9.126(D)(7) and 9.126(E)(4), a person may seek disclosure of otherwise confidential information contained in the files and records of the Discipline Board, the Grievance Commission and the Grievance Administrator by filing a request for disclosure with the Board or the Supreme Court. Rule 9.126(F) requires the Board to include in its annual report an accounting of all requests for disclosure that have been filed with the Board during the year. There were no requests for disclosure filed with the Board under MCR 9.126(D)(7) or MCR 9.126(E)(4) during the year 2009.

Website

The Attorney Discipline Board continues to expand and update its website: www.adbmich.org. The site includes: recent Board opinions, notices of discipline and reinstatement petitions; access to the disciplinary history of all attorneys disciplined in Michigan since October 1, 1978; a searchable data base including the full text of all opinions of the Attorney Discipline Board, as well as all notices of discipline and reinstatement issued since October 1, 1978; and links to related sites in the fields of attorney discipline, regulation and ethics. Since the last annual report, the Board has expanded its website with more information for hearing panel applicants, information on a hearing panelist's disclosure obligations and updated information on the status of high profile cases of interest to the public and profession.
